

21 CLE A5: Academic Expectation: Know and understand the rights and responsibilities of citizens within a democratic society.

	Advanced	Proficient	Basic	Novice
21 CLE A5.1 Understand voting and elections	Assess the historical process and implications of elections and voting Evaluate information and decide to vote Differentiate between candidates and evaluate their positions	Differentiate the process of elections at the local, state, and federal level Gather information to make an informed decision in an election	Describe the basic election process at the local, state, and federal level Describe various ways to participate in the voting process Identify how to gather information to make an informed decision in an election	Know how to register and the importance of voting
21 CLE A5.2 Understand the American democracy structured around the Constitution	Assess the role of each branch's responsibility at the local, state, and federal levels and apply to real life situations	Provide examples of how the three branches of government execute their constitutional responsibilities on the local, state, and federal level	Describe the 3 branches of government and their duties at the local, state, and federal level	List the 3 branches of government
21 CLE A5.3 Understand individual rights protected by the Bill of Rights and further Amendments	Assess the role of the Bill of Rights in the Constitutional process and apply to real life situations	Analyze how and why basic rights are protected under the Constitutional amendments	Describe the basic rights covered under the first ten amendments	Define the function of the Bill of Rights and amendments with examples

Created on current drive on 9/14/2007
 Accessed 10/13/2011

Completed on July 25, 2005 during Frank Thoms workshop